Officers Installed, Guests Highlight Opening Assembly

Installation of Valley College's new student body officers highlighted the opening assembly for the fall semester last Friday.

Miss Edith Clark, assistant superintendent of schools, Dr. Howard Campion, associate superintendent of schools, Dr. Vierling Kersey, College director, Dean Nena Royer and Dean Walter Coultas spoke briefly.

Officially declared in office were: Mike Seeger, A.S.B. president; Dick Yamashita, vice president; Perry Carson, treasurer; and Shirley Holt, secretary.

Introduced as the new Executive Council were Bob Baker, A.M.S. president; Kathy Moore, A.W.S. president; and Dellaine Hazen, editor of THE VALLEY STAR.

Announced as members of the new Student Council were: Joan Brask, Jeanne Marcy, Beverly Zanoline, Berle Browne and Karl von Poederoyen.

Last semester's officers vacated their positions.

After the official business was cleared, Coach Charles Mann presented the football team. Then the first rally of the fall semester was held together with the introduction of the college's mascot, the Lion. Sally Crasswallier led the student body in the Valley College fight song.

KEEP IT CLEAN

The condition of the Student Club is disastrous to our college. If improvements in the cleanliness are not made, the Student Club will be closed until the Associated Students can conduct themselves in such a manner as to prove worthy of the privilege of having a Student Club.

Card playing is not allowed in the Student Club at any time because facilities do not provide room for such activities.

College Library Ready To Assist Student Studies

With shelves overflowing with 600 text, reference and fiction books, Valley College's library stands ready to assist its students in their studies. Temporarily located in the Study Hall, under the direction of Miss June Adams, it is slated to be moved to its permanent quarters in R. 15.

In addition to the already large number of books, there are: a complete card catalog for easy reference, a Readers' Guide, an Industrial Arts Index, catalogs from all leading colleges and universities and a file of all the current periodicals.

Executive Council To Host Metropolitan Conference; Another First for Monarchs

Next Tuesday, September 26, beginning at 9 a.m., representatives from El Camino, Harbor, East Los Angeles, Santa Monica, San Diego and Bakersfield Colleges will register at Valley College for the first Metropolitan Conference of the year. This will be the first conference ever to be held at Valley.

The hosts and hostesses for the conference will be the Executive Council of Valley College.

The committee chairman is Robert Lunsford. According to him, the purposes of the Metropolitan Conferences are: to coordinate the activities of all schools in the Metropolitan League in solving problems of both local and state interest—such problems as may arise in

- The athletic program.
- The student government.
- Generally relating to college activities.

and to better acquaint the leaders of the colleges in the Metropolitan League.

The college invited to the conference were asked to forward a list of topics they felt should be discussed.

The plans for the day include: 9:30-10 a.m.—Registration. Coffee will be served in the Student Club.

10:11:30 a.m.—First general session (informal).

- Welcome by host school.
- Address by College Director.
- Your school in the Inter-League Metropolitan Conference.
- General discussion — pertaining to procedure and conference.

12 noon to 1 p.m.—Luncheon served at the Bull Pen.

1 p.m.-4 p.m.—Second general session. (Topics chosen for discussion will be taken up at this time).

cussion will be taken up at this time).

This is the first in a series of Metropolitan Conferences. According to Lunsford, it will be an annual affair for Valley.

Valley Starting Caravan To Stop 'Lost' Travelers

By DICK MCGOWAN

Do you get lost easily? Do maps confuse you? Well, never fear, your worries are over. From now on you can hook your bumper to the "Valley Caravan," guaranteed to get you to your destination quickly and safely. Besides, it's more enjoyable to travel in a group.

A week from tomorrow Valley College's football team plays Santa Monica City College at Santa Monica. The game starts at 8 p.m. and plans are in progress for all Valley rooters to leave together in a large caravan. The time and place of the meeting will be announced in next week's STAR.

Decorate your cars with the "green and gold" of Valley, and show off the spirit and appreciation we have of both the college and the football team. Let's prove we're behind the team by going down in a group and yelling ourselves hoarse at the game.

Notice To All Students

All students going to the football game Saturday MUST wear white shirts or white blouses if they wish to sit in the rooting section. All Alphas MUST wear their dinks to be admitted to the game.

ASB Government Outlines Program for Fall Semester

Under the direction of Mike Seeger, president of Associated Students of Valley College, and William McNelis and Miss Frances Cochanides, faculty advisers, the Executive Council outlined the program for the coming semester at a series of summer meetings. Plans for conferences, dances and assemblies were organized.

The ticket booth now on campus was designed and built by Dewitt Lunsford, father of Bob Lunsford, last semester's president of Valley, under the authority of the Executive Council.

The lion suit was obtained for the Executive Council by Miss Cochanides.

Bob Lunsford was appointed head of the first dance committee. His committee includes Jeanne Marcy, Dellaine Hazen and Shirley Holt.

The summer meetings were held at homes of the Executive Council members and in the Faculty room of the college.

Valley Kick-off Dance Honors Football Team; Don Ricardo to Play

Alphas Must Wear Dinks to be Admitted; Lunsford Promises Ceremonial Removal

Take off those "dinks". Get on that dance floor. Come on, students. Let's dance.

That will be the cry heard tomorrow night when Valley College's first "Kick-off" dance gets under way. This festive occasion has been scheduled at 9:30 p.m. in College Hall; closing time will be 12:30 a.m.

Baker Announces AMS Elections To Fill Vacancies

Vacancies in the A.M.S. cabinet will be filled during an assembly called by Bob Baker, president. The assembly will be held Thursday, Sept. 28, at 11 a.m., in College Hall.

The offices of vice president, secretary and treasurer must be filled. These vacancies are caused by the fact that Jim Smith, elected vice president, is now in the Air Force; J. C. Poe, secretary, and Everett Moore, treasurer, did not return to Valley this semester.

Nominations for each office will be made on the floor. Elections will follow immediately.

Bob Baker urges all men to attend this assembly. He says it is an important meeting and there is much to be accomplished.

New Instructors Added To College Faculty

Valley College welcomes six new instructors to its faculty this week. The college now has 45 instructors.

The engineering department secured two of the six: Parker McClure and Herbert G. Schreiter.

Eleanor C. Vactor was added to the English department, but she also doubles in French.

Joseph M. Puig is a new Spanish instructor, and Donald D. Brooks took over an instructing job in secretarial science.

Miss B. E. Butcher, new chemistry teacher, recently taught at Van Nuys High School. previously taught at John Marshall High School and L.A.C.C. Miss Butcher is a feature editor of "Scalacs," the local publication of the American Chemistry Society.

Alphas To Wear Dinks

Under the guidance of Bob Lunsford, chairman, the dance will honor the Alphas and the football team. Alphas must wear their dinks to get in to the dance.

There will be a special ceremony in connection with the "dink" and a special presentation to the team. Following this, the Alphas will have a dance of their own.

Ricardo To Play

Don Ricardo, the popular orchestra leader at college campuses, will provide the music. During the summer, he entertained at Santa Monica's Doyal Club.

Admission

The admission price is 75 cents along with a student body card. Anyone who is without card must accompany a student who is in possession of one. Ones without S.B. cards will be banned from College Hall.

What To Wear

Door prizes will be awarded to some lucky couple. The wearing apparel should consist of date dresses and ties.

"This is the first dance of the season," commented Lunsford. "I'm looking forward to a very enjoyable evening."

Annual Staff

Anyone interested in joining the Valley College annual staff is requested to attend the first meeting at 11 a.m., Thursday, Sept. 28, in R. 12. Anyone joining the staff will be able to earn two units credit.

leaving it up to someone else."

According to Mr. Knox, if enough students are interested in forming a band, transportation will be furnished to games away from home.

Rehearsals are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 2 p.m. in the Band Bungalow located on the high school campus.

All persons interested in playing for tomorrow's football game should see Mr. Knox at once.

Some of the larger horns and other instruments are available for student use.

Post cards have been sent to persons, who, when filling out questionnaires during registration, showed an interest in playing for a band.

Spirit Must Improve

First, a bouquet to bestow on the fine turnout for the game last Saturday night at Huntington Beach, but the cheering wasn't strong enough.

It isn't always the outcome of the game that counts; it's sometimes the "coming out!" Those boys on the field need to hear you cheering in the stands. Last Saturday, there just wasn't enough of it. Tomorrow afternoon, show those fellows you have the spirit which Valley College was noted for last semester.

No matter the score, the cheering must continue until the last gun sounds and the final score is given. A moral victory sometimes means as much as an actual scoring one.

Last year Valley had spirit because we had nothing else! No beautiful campus—no beautiful buildings—dust, dust everywhere—still the students stood by and cheered in victory and defeat.

This year mustn't be any different! It can't be if Valley is to continue to lead in high spirit.

Thanks for the Compliments

Our thanks go to faculty and students alike who have taken time to stop by R. 12 to compliment us on our first edition. We truly appreciate the kind words expressed.

We shall endeavor to remain worthy of this praise by attempting to do as well and better on future editions of THE VALLEY STAR. —D. H.

Are You Lonely?

Are you a lonely Alpha? Do you wish that you could become an active part of Valley College life? There is certainly no reason why you shouldn't!

Valley is now a year old, but a new student can still find the friendly atmosphere and wonderful spirit which made the college progress so quickly.

One way to become an active part of the college is to show an interest in the clubs which are offered to new and old students.

It isn't easy for a new student to enter a college. Strange faces can sometimes act as a barrier in the attempt to "get into the swing of things." Pioneer students at Valley, many of whom are still here, had much the same problem to face. We want all new students to know that they are a great part of the school.

The only problem is that we don't know who really wants to pitch in and help unless YOU, the new students, say so. Aside from the language clubs, the Knights and Coronets, and the honor societies which give a new student an excellent opportunity to meet new friends and participate in college activities, there are many clubs which are strictly social. The Three Gaits, the Ice-Skating Club, the Pep Club and the Student-Y will enable students to participate in things which they enjoy and at the same time meet many Valley students.

Anyone wishing to become a part of the college by participating in these organizations may contact anyone in the office of the STAR, R. 12. —D. Joyce

Students May Earn As They Learn

Cooperative training is a major source of occupational opportunity for the qualified person.

Retail merchandising is the only course at Valley College at present that offers this type of opportunity. However, Mrs. Mary Bruick, merchandising instructor, expects this plan to expand to other courses in the near future.

This is the way it works. The retail merchandising course will be taken as an example. According to the bulletin put out by the San Fernando Valley Merchants and Valley College, the Cooperative Retail Merchandising course will be one year in length and will combine classroom instruction with a correlated work experience program. Both the classroom instruction and the cooperative work program are approved by and taken part in by representative cooperating merchants of the various communities in San Fernando Valley. College credit will be given for supervised work experience.

The classes are attended in the Jobs for Collegians Available, Says Bruick

Efforts are being made to obtain jobs for students of Valley College based on the need of individuals as much as possible.

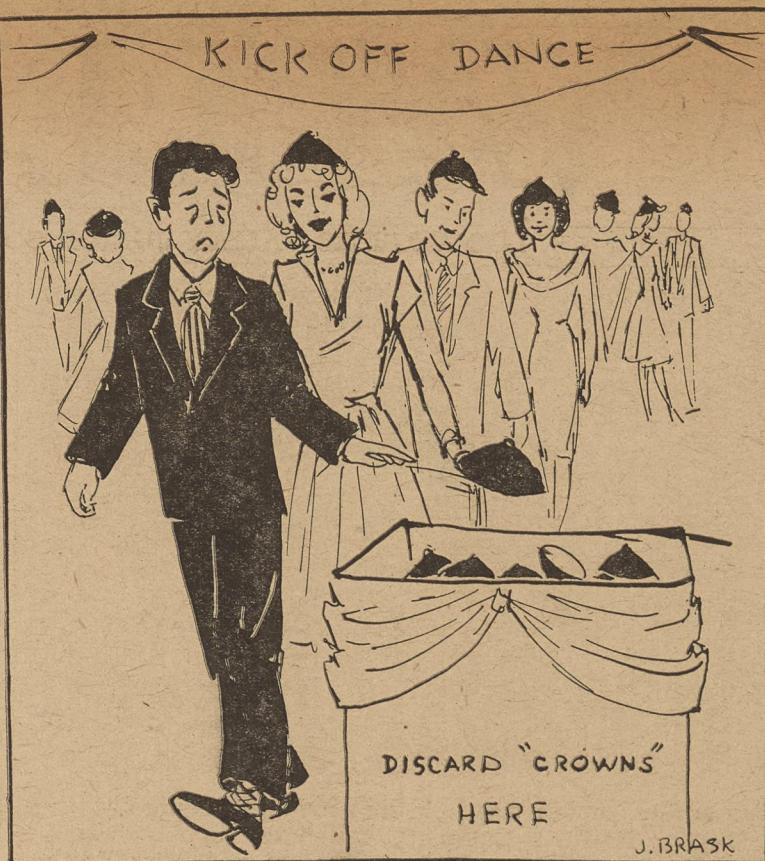

Some jobs are available now, and other contacts throughout the Valley area will develop more job sources.

Mrs. Mary Bruick, instructor at Valley College, is in charge of the employment placement at Valley. Mrs. Bruick urges all students, both men and women, who are interested in employment, to make arrangements for an interview as soon as possible regardless of whether they applied for jobs through the college last year or not.

Mrs. Bruick is available for interviews at 8 a.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and on Monday and Wednesday afternoons. On Tuesday and Thursday, she is available at 10 a.m. In the near future, according to Mrs. Bruick, a blackboard will be set up outside the Administration Building on which available jobs will be posted.

morning by the student, and he is employed in a cooperative store in the afternoon.

"And I've (sob) become so Hat-tached to it"

In the Mood

By DICK MCGOWAN

Charlie Ventura is attempting to prove that he can front a band that can play any type of dance music. "I've been trying to convince people I have a dance band for the last six months, but bookers keep thinking of us as a bop band." Right now Charlie is packing the Arcadia in 'New York with his DANCE band, but every so often he and the boys break into an unpromptu jam session.

Half-Notes

Capital records have re-signed Margaret Whiting and Kay Starr to seven and five year contracts and are negotiating with Peggy Lee for a renewal. Ray Anthony's waxing of "Star Dust" is the 350th cutting of this evergreen by Hoagy Carmichael and Mike Parrish.

The Dixieland Rhythm Kings of Dayton, Ohio, are said to be the closest thing to real Dixie, according to experts on the subject.

Tommy Dorsey evidently has survived the crash of big bands. Today, his group rates as one of the best in the business. The band's only weak points are its vocals, a common failing today; but otherwise it puts on the kind of polished and varied display of dance music in the course of an evening which had almost seemed lost to this world in recent years. This dance music craze is ruining modern, creative music, but if I must listen to this type, I prefer Dorsey.

EARLY MOVIES TO BE SHOWN BY FILM CLUB

Entertainment trends toward movies of today's choice will be brought to Valley College in early film greats. The Valley College Film Society, sponsored by the English department, has arranged to meet the strong general interest in the early pictures that made movies the world media of entertainment.

Obtained from the Museum of Modern Arts, the films, otherwise not to be seen, can be viewed at College Hall during evening assemblies. Guest speakers will explain the movies shown. Original scores will accompany silent films.

VCFS memberships are one dollar. This entitles the holder to admission to the series of films, both silents and early talkies. Dates will be announced soon.

Further information and details of VCFS activities are available through Mr. Woolfan and Mr. Braun of the English department in Faculty Room 3.

You new students, who were never privileged enough to have read this column last year when Master Ray Cluff was writing it, will, I hope, voice no great groans or grumbles when it hits the streets each Friday, but I have no such right to expect the same from you old students. I ask but one thing, go easy and bear with me, and maybe it will improve.

LOATHSOME LION'S LAIR

Did anyone happen to see the Student Club Friday afternoon (and by the looks of it who didn't)? Look, this is the Student Club and not a pig wallow, no matter how much it resembled one on said Friday. After the first wave hit, it wasn't a fit place to eat a candy bar in. True, it isn't the Stork Club, but it's the only place we have to eat, so let's keep it clean, or we won't have a place to eat.

You have undoubtedly seen signs by this time pertaining to said uncleanness in same club. The Student Council, who has charge of the club, elevated these posters for your information and guidance, and they will be obeyed or—whist—no more club.

HOORAY

Now to hand out a couple of cheers (something that was missing at last Saturday's football game). First, to the Alpha class for their cooperation in Operation Dink. Secondly, to the Student Council for getting on the ball so fast.

WHAT WE NEED IS A BAND

What we need is a band. This situation can be remedied as of now. Richard A. Knox, the new music instructor, is searching frantically for talented tooters; and if they're latched on to in time we shall have a band for Saturday's game.

Monarchs To Know

By LEO OFALI

EDITOR'S NOTE: THE VALLEY STAR will introduce the new instructors in this column. After they have been introduced, students who have had interesting experiences will be featured.

Wilford Everett Jenks

Wilford Everett Jenks is a new addition to the Valley College English department.

Mr. Jenks was born in Idaho but moved to California in time to graduate from Narbonne High School. He later attended UCLA where he received his A. B. degree. After that he went to USC for his Master's Degree in English.

His first teaching assignment was at La Grande High School near Yosemite, California. While at La Grande, he taught English, drama, journalism and was the faculty adviser for the annual.

Mr. Jenks first college instructing was done at USC on the freshman communication program in the English department under Dr. Harold E. Briggs.

He was at USC for two and a half years in this English experiment, then later transferred to Compton College. His last year of instructing before coming to Valley was at L. A. State College.

Angelo S. Villa

Angelo S. Villa, new Spanish instructor, came to Valley College from Palomar College in Vista, California.

Mr. Villa is a graduate of Poly Tech High School. He obtained his A.B. and M.A. degrees at USC and another M. A. at Harvard.

In June of this year, Mr. Villa married Ann Lyons, a former student of his at Palomar.

Mrs. Villa will soon be enrolling in Valley College as a full time student.

Before teaching at Palomar, Mr. Villa did graduate work for two years at Harvard and one year and a summer session at USC.

At Palomar, Mr. Villa taught journalism, coached football, track and basketball besides sponsoring a men's club.

He was a veteran of three years in the air corps in Italy and Corsica.

Mr. Villa expressed his desire to remain at Valley which he described as being, "Very nice, very friendly."

Try-outs for One-Act Plays Open to All

Mr. Bob Davis, drama instructor, announces plans to produce ten one-act plays this semester.

Any student of Valley College may try-out for a part in one of the plays whether he is taking classes in drama or not, he says.

Pirates Run Wild Downing Valley 40-0 In Opener

By DICK DEGNON

Coach Charles Mann's Monarchs are back in their lair licking their wounds after absorbing a 40-0 setback at the hands of a potent Orange Coast Jaysee eleven last Saturday night at Huntington Beach.

Valley dropped its first grid tilt in the college's history to a ball club that recently beat the El Toro Marines by six touchdowns and racked up five TD's against a good Santa Ana team.

Coach Mann stated after the game that "too much can't be expected at such an early date of a new football team, but things will look up when the squad gets organized with more scrimmaging."

Valley was only in the ball game three times all night, but at several brief times showed signs of a good offensive punch.

The Monarchs took the opening kickoff and marched to the Orange Coast 18-yard-line before relinquishing the ball on downs.

Chuck Wiand took a fourth down Pirate punt and returned it back 46 yards before being stopped. Walt Ambord cracked the middle for 15. Bob Clarke went for a first down on the 10.

Orange Coast struck late in the first period on a 55-yard pass play from Orv Threadgill to end Earley. Raul Hernandez skirted the end for 55 yards to the Monarch five, and then it was carried over on the next play. Their third TD was tallied on a short pass. Their final score in the first half was made on a long pass and racked up on an end run by Howie Miller.

Valley had the ball in the Pirate territory most of the third canto but couldn't score.

Howie Miller, 150 pounds of dynamite, who was easily the best back on the field, grabbed Ambord's kick and raced 65 yards for Coast's fifth touchdown. F. E. Harris flipped a 55-yard toss to end Earley for their final score of the night.

Valley continued missing blocking and tackling throughout the first half and showed signs of disorganization. This was all taken care of in this week's practice schedule.

Outstanding on the line for Valley in defeat were Mike Sutalo, Jack Langford, who was acting captain, Bob Rebol and Jack Rogers. Chuck Wiand, Walt Ambord and Bob Clarke showed faint signs of brilliance in the backfield.

Lineups:

Valley (0)	Orange Coast (40)
Baker	LE Earley
Rebol	LT Patterson
Langford	LG Owens
Hawley	C Williford
Woodward	RG Chade
Rogers	RT Mayer
Branigan	RE Doyle
Ambord	Q Threadgill

SLOSSON WANTS YOU!

Valley College Starts Cross-Country Squad

Jim Slosson, new Monarch cross-country coach and former USC middle distance star, is calling for a larger turnout for the leather lungers sport. At this writing only six thinclads have reported with four more expected.

Coach Slosson said, "I would like to see even more men out for the team. Anyone wanting to join should see me."

Coach Slosson plans to use the new Swedish method of conditioning used by Sweden's ace Lennert Strand. This new method enables the runner to get into shape without the usual drudgery and hard grind, thus making the sport more enjoyable.

Former North Hollywood Huskie stars Don Hoover, Clive Rogers and Dwight Mobley along with the Van Nuys and LACC great, Jim Dickey, who was Western States cross-country champ of 1948, are on the squad.

The boys have been working out for ten days and are now prepping for practice meets with Glendale, East Los Angeles, Santa Monica and possibly USC. There will be the four practice meets with six conference clashes and two sectional meets, one at Santa Barbara and the other at Cal Poly. The schedule is not definite as yet.

'Court Sport' Most Liked by Women

Tennis thus far seems to be the most popular women's sport at Valley College. Forty-eight feminine students signed up for the racket sport this semester.

The class was split with 32 remaining in the original group and 12 placed into a noon class.

Instructor Miss Jeanne Pons is trying to get a bus for transportation to the Van Owen playground for her classes. Two courts have been reserved, but she hopes that the other two can be obtained for Valley use.

Miss Pons further stated that she was glad that so many girls

Former U.S.C. Star Instructor at Valley

Jim Slosson, new cross-country coach, geology and geography instructor at Valley College, is the holder of the Van Nuys High School 880-yard run record and a three-year letterman at the University of Southern California.

Slosson's great track career was interrupted in 1943 by the U. S. Air Force; as a result he spent two years in Salt Lake City as a physical education instructor. He was sent to Officer's Candidate School in '45 and was discharged as a ground force second lieutenant.

His best two lap time at S.C. was 154.8. He also ran third man on the four-man mile relay team. Their best time was 3:12.0. He got married in '48 and couldn't run the 880 any longer—so he said he switched to the 440 where he was clocked in 48.0 for his top time at this distance.

Lettermen Club

The Valley College Lettermen's club will meet every Thursday at 11 a.m., Ed Austin, president, announced Tuesday.

The club will function at the football game tomorrow in the capacity of ticket takers and ushers; they also will run the coke stand.

Austin requests any lettermen who have not signed up to help and can to see him today or Mike Seeger or Bob Lunsford at the game tomorrow.

Plans are being made for this cooperative training in the commercial field. It is felt that the plan will be welcomed by many students.

are interested in the "court sport."

Valley Hosts Knights In Metro Conference Grid Opener Tomorrow

Metropolitan Conference play officially starts tomorrow, when the Valley College Monarchs tangle with the San Diego Knights on the Van Nuys High School athletic field at 3:30 p.m.

The Monarchs will be out to avenge the white washing they received last week at Orange Coast.

San Diego always fields a formidable team and wins its share of games. Not much is known about the present squad except that they plan to give opposing clubs trouble all season.

Valley's Lineup

As for Valley, there will be no drastic changes in the starting lineup. In fact, the only probable change is at quarterback where Chuck Wiand will open with Walt Ambord moving to fullback in place of Claude Powers, who started last week's game.

The rest of the backfield will have Bob Clarke at left half, and Tony Albert at right half.

The line, no doubt, will remain the same with Bill Baker and Tom Branigan at ends; Bob Rebol and Jack Rogers at tackles; guards, Jack Langford and Ronald Woodward; and center, Hugh Hawley.

Second String

The second string line will have Hank Balderas and Ernie Chacon, ends; Dick Remender and Rod Sweet, tackles; guards, Norm Rosen, Bob Seanor and Mike Sutalo.

In the backfield, Vaughn Glasser will pitch some passes from the signal calling position. Bob Cantrell, Richard Dean and Johnny Godfrey are the running halfbacks. Claude Powers and Luke Verrett will see plenty of action at fullback.

Lack of Interest Forces Stoppage Of WAA Sports

All W.A.A. classes at Valley College have been discontinued this semester because of the small enrollment announces Miss Jeanne Pons, women's athletic instructor.

There were originally three W. A. A. classes scheduled, but due to lack of interest all three were dropped. Only eight signed for basketball, four for badminton and four for volleyball.

Miss Pons said that the spirit of the girls who did come out was commendable, and she hopes that brighter prospects will be in store for next semester.

AWS Entertain Alphas At First Social Event; Election Scheduled

The Associated Women Students' tea, held Tuesday in College Hall and presided over by new president Kathy Moore, acquainted Alpha women with the A.W.S.

Miss Moore welcomed the new women to Valley College and introduced the A.W.S. council. Members of the council are: vice president, Joy Schoeder; secretary, Shirley Wertz; president of the W.A.A., Diane Everets; and Pat Coombs, Gail Penery, Michele Arons and Dodie Joyce.

Many Men

"There are twice as many men at Valley as there are women, so let's stick together," remarked Miss Helen Mindlin, A.W.S. sponsor, as she welcomed the new students.

Mrs. Nena Royer, Dean of Activities, pointed out that every well regulated college needs women because of the ethical standards, higher tone and finer atmosphere which they create.

Mrs. Royer also commented on the grace and charm of Valley women and of the high standards which they had set for themselves.

Miss Gertsch Speaks

President of the Van Nuys Business and Professional Women, Miss Wanda Gertsch, was introduced and she announced that the club intended to sponsor a scholarship for the College.

The Business and Professional Women's Club was started in 1919 and extends an opportunity to fellow working women in the industrial and vocational fields. The organization is international and tries to help career women with the problems of the business world.

Miss Gertsch announced her intention of bringing the organization into the College for all women interested in it.

Entertainment

Janet Cavener, new Alpha student at Valley, sang "One Kiss" and "Song of Love" by Victor Herbert. Miss Cavener has sung on many talent shows including Hollywood Spotlight and the N. T. G. Talent Show.

Beverly Zanoline, who had one of the leads in "All My Sons" last semester, gave a humorous skit entitled "The Waltz" by Dorothy Parker.

New Women Introduced

New women students from many high schools including John Muir, North Hollywood, Canoga Park, Van Nuys, Manual Arts, John Burroughs and various other schools from different parts of the United States were introduced. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Election

Election for the treasurer of the A.W.S. will be held Thursday and Friday in front of the Student Club. Diane Baker and Barbara Greer will be on the ballot.

KATHY MOORE — newly elected president of the Associated Women Students.

Fashion Flicker

By SANDEE SLAKOFF

It's back to college and return of campus bellringers that will lead you a tuneful, fashionable life!

BORROWED FROM THE BOYS. The English Schoolboy's little flannel jacket has left the prim classroom scene forever, and now makes its debut with a white linen collar and dark contrasting skirt. The man influence can definitely be spotted in the latest mad plaid slacks ever to hit this town—the skin tight, elegant "drainpipe pants."

BLUE RIBBON WINNERS. The girls on campus this fall realize that the "separate theme" will add variety and color to their wardrobe. MARCIA KERNER already appreciates the value of her blue cotton blouse that introduces the smartly detailed double stitched collar. Her gray flannel skirt, perfect with navy blue, has deep triangle pockets and a swaggering back pleat.

BEVERLY ZANOLINE loves a good knit suit. Her version of fashion is a picture of tailored simplicity—an aqua colored knit suit with a pattern stitch. And speaking of suits — MICHELE ARONS and JOAN BRASK both wore tailored outfits on that very important first day back to college. Student Y Club Announces Full Semester Schedule: New Members Welcome

Valley-Go-Round

By DODIE JOYCE

Green and gold is certainly sprinkling the campus this week! Over 350 dinks have been sold to new Alphas . . . Terry, Cammie and Jack McCall have started Valley this semester. The two sisters and brother are from Michigan and are taking classes for a university transfer.

Rick Bowen, Van Nuys High graduate, is majoring in general education and was captain of the tennis team and ran the cross-country in high school . . . Bob Kircher went out for varsity baseball at Los Angeles High and is majoring in journalism at Valley.

Canoga Park High is well represented at Valley this semester . . . Joe Villa will take a pre-med course and may go out for football . . . Betty McCauley plans to major in occupational therapy . . . Talented Diane Cline will probably be called on to perform more than once at assemblies. Her hobby is playing all types of Spanish instruments. Besides playing piano, she plays the maracas, reeds, gourds and Spanish guitar . . . Helen Gurney sings popular ballads and was in numerous talent shows at Canoga Park High.

Nancy Campbell from San Fernando High will major in home economics at Valley. Shirley Stinson, also a graduate from San Fernando High, will take a business course. She sings light classical on the side. Don Snyder, another new student at Valley, is a graduate of the Marion Colbert School of Hollywood . . . Marilyn Tiddle, North Hollywood graduate, will take up office direction at Valley.

A big red apple to Mrs. Nena Royer for her wonderful job of decorating the Student Club. The new drapes and the arrangement of tables certainly make binations. What's even newer to notice is the conventional flat shoe now boasts a higher heel. Of course the moccasin has returned to campus, but it's a detailed shoe this season, and it comes in a range of singing colors.

NOVELTIES AND NEWS.

CHARLEEN BACKUS designs stoles and skirts to match; her newest outfit plays up the blue and beige plaid color scheme. CHARLEEN adds "catch-all" pockets in all the unusual places, and comes up with smart new details in sports clothes.

The cricket blazer returns in a bright blaze of glory all its own! Just the thing to make the boys at school green with envy—a soft flannel jacket, red, white and blue striped with high notched lapels, narrow sleeves and shining brass buttons. Real fur sweaters—almost too exciting to imagine—come into focus this season and promise to become the center of any girl's fashion picture.

The well dressed girl need only be concerned in wearing clothes that compliment her. After all, you are now the young college girl, but remember — clothes make the woman — or at least the woman you hope to be.

The Student-Y organization under the leadership of Wyatt Seal and sponsored by Kermit Dale, mathematics instructor, have made many plans for varied activities throughout the semester. They invite those interested to join.

The group, which offers service, social and fellowship as its code, was responsible for the Steve Allen assembly yesterday, which was very well received by new and old students alike.

Semester Plans Made

The club plans to have a jam-boree at Griffith Park on Sept. 29. There will be numerous contests, as well as horseback riding and ukelele playing. Tentative plans are now being made for a week end trip to Balboa.

Representatives from the club will attend an intercollegiate Y Club conference at Lake Arrowhead sometime soon. Every college in Southern California will be represented; there will be between 500 and 600 students present at the convention.

Attended Orange Dance

Twenty-three members of the Y and two faculty members went to the Orange Coast-Valley game last week in trucks and were invited by former Valley student, Cappy Slade, to attend the Orange Coast kick-off dance. Club members made many new friends at the "Sock-hop." The club announces that they will offer the truck service at future away-from-home games.

There are no requirements for membership in the Y except to be interested in the organization.

For information, students may contact president Wyatt Seal or treasurer Marilyn Kendall.

New Clerk Likes Valley College

Miss Grace Lord, formerly employed by the Board of Education in the Maintenance and Operations Branch of the Business Division as junior clerk, has taken over the duties of office clerk at Valley College in place of Mrs. Doris Clark, who is on leave.

Miss Lord, former drama major at the University of Arizona, is quite pleased with her job and says the Valley is the nicest place she has ever lived.

Very interested in drama, Miss Lord acted as stage manager and edited theater programs in college and also played in "My Sister Eileen" and "Hedda Gabler."

an improvement over last semester. Mrs. Royer wants to compliment the students on the way the Union has been kept so far. Let's keep it that way.

ODDS AND ENDS DEPARTMENT . . . Marsha Wynn will not attend Valley this semester as she won an art scholarship. She will attend the California School of Arts this semester . . . More wedding bells rang this week for Tommy Muse and "Pat" Patterson, and Toni Thompson and Paul Sanker . . . That sharp little blue '39 Ford seen around the college belongs to Betty Jo Schaaes. She bought it this summer and is really proud of it—ripples and all! . . . By the Spanish Club To Hold Elections

"All old and prospective members are invited to participate in the election of officers," states Mr. Robert Nassi, director of Valley College's Spanish Club. Next Thursday the club will meet in R. 19 at 11 a.m.

Numerous activities are planned for the "Los Amigos del Valle" this semester. Some of these include social dancing, with the accent on Latin America, and illustrated talks on Spanish speaking countries.

The close of the semester will feature a Spanish banquet. Members will recall last year's dinner at the El Cafe Caliente.

Last year "El Eco do Valle" was published by the club, and plans are now being made for its return to the Valley Campus.

Drama Instructor Receives Honor

Bob Davis, theater arts instructor at Valley, will take a three weeks' leave of absence for an appointment as temporary coordinator to work with Dr. Howard Campion of the Board of Education.

Mr. Davis will direct a show at Canoga Park High School for invited guests which will give parents an idea of how school and parents can cooperate to benefit their children.

The show will be on Oct. 5 and will be sponsored by the Parent Teachers' Association of Canoga Park.

Dr. Vierling Kersey, director of Valley College, says the dramatizations which Mr. Davis will direct, portray the activities and success of elementary teachers, pupils and school.

Until further notice, Mr. Clarence Karella will substitute as instructor for the drama classes. Mr. Davis will be assisted by Ray Pollack in his temporary assignment.

way, correcting a statement made in last week's column: it was Miss June Adams, not Miss Frances Cochranides, who traveled to Mexico. Miss Cochranides says she certainly wished she had gone there, but at least she traveled as far as San Francisco.

Student Body Treasurer "Kit" Carson reminds all freshmen to wear their dinks to the Kick-off Dance tomorrow night. There will be a special ceremony for the removal of the hats.

That's thirty for today, guys and gals. One more welcome to all the new students. See you all at the football game and dance tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Nordman Elected to Membership In Long Beach Art Association; Paintings To Be in Art Exhibit

Joseph Nordmann, Valley College chemistry instructor, was recently elected to membership in the Long Beach Art Association.

Qualifications for the organization require new members to have had a painting exhibited at a juried show and to be recommended by a member.

Mr. Nordmann took various trips this summer and painted many California and Arizona landscapes. He used water colors for seven years, and has become very interested in oil paintings during the past year.

The talented instructor is taking lessons from Paul Conner of Long Beach. Mr. Conner is considered excellent in the field of art.

Mr. Nordmann will enter one of his oil paintings in the art exhibit in the Pacific Coast Club in Long Beach to be held soon.
